

ROBERTO M. SORACCO

C: 281-814-9906
E: rmsoracco@aldineisd.org
W: rsoracco.com

Learner. Educator. Designer.

STATEMENT

An educator with a passion for sharing knowledge to learners of all ages. Promoting the use of technology as a learning tool, for digital natives and immigrants. Always seeking to expand people's knowledge of what they capable of doing with technology.

EDUCATION

2011-2015 Masters of Fine Arts, Graphic Design
Savannah College of Art and Design

2000-2005 Bachelor of Arts, Computer Science
University of Nevada, Las Vegas

SKILLS & CERTIFICATIONS

Google Educator
Level I and II

Apple Teacher
Mac, iPad, Classroom

Languages
Spanish & English

Photoshop
InDesign
Web Design
Video Editing

EXPERIENCE

2021-Present Digital Learning Specialist (Aldine ISD)
Responsible for collaborating, integrating, and coaching with campus and district personnel on focusing in digital citizenship, digital differentiation and blended learning. Designed, produced, and managed marketing campaigns for TCCA, DLS department, and Esports.

2020-2021 District Instructional Technology Specialist (Spring ISD)
Responsible for communicating with Digital Learning Coaches of district initiatives, organize monthly trainings, support campuses in implementing various instructional technology applications. Provide Schoology Support by creating customized self-paced professional development, maintaining courses with proper settings, and training staff members on various topics. Provide technology support to staff members through the help desk ticketing system. Designing district print and digital media communications documents throughout the school year and summer sessions.

2016-2020 Technology Instructor + Technology Team Leader (Spring ISD/Milton Cooper Elementary)
Developed and implemented the first technology elementary curriculum for kindergarten through fifth grade in Spring ISD that focused on computer literacy, digital citizenship, keyboarding skills, Google Classroom, Google Docs, Google Slides, Computer Science with code.org, and Robotics. Sponsor of the LEGO Robotics and Coding Club.

2005-2016 Fourth Grade Math + Science Bilingual Teacher (Spring ISD/Milton Cooper Elementary)
Designed and implemented curriculum and lesson materials that were differentiated for diverse, economically disadvantaged learners. Read, write, and orally communicate effectively in English and Spanish. Able to adjust teaching styles to a variety of ages, levels, and language competencies and appreciate many cultures. Created translations for academic material, presentations, and assessments.

2009-2020 Team Leader (Spring ISD/Milton Cooper Elementary)
Responsible for assisting team member implementation of the district's instructional programs, to understand district and campus goals, policies and procedures, weekly planning to implement curriculum, write weekly lesson plans, and acting on as liaison between the team and the school administration.

2008-2020 Computer Liaison Teacher / Campus Instructional Technologist (Spring ISD/Milton Cooper Elementary)
Responsible for collaborating with the Technology team to provide first line assistance to campus technology needs. Provide on-site support to campus faculty and staff with the integration of technology, curriculum development as it relates to instructional technology and training teachers to use technology in the most appropriate and effective manner through staff development.

RECOGNITIONS

Teacher of the Year 2015-2016
Bilingual Teacher of the Year

DIGITAL SITE

Scan the QR or go to rsoracco.com

